

Exercises

1. Show that, for any number x , $\text{sum } [x] = x$.
2. Define a function `product` that produces the product of a list of numbers, and show using your definition that $\text{product } [2,3,4] = 24$.
3. How should the definition of `qsort` be modified so that it returns a list in its descending order?